irreverent spirited a seriously funny novel new york review of books sitting in his cramped basement room in brixton battersby dreams of money women a t bone steak and a place to call his own so he and a group of friends decide to save up and buy a house together but amid grasping landlords the temptations of spending money and the less than welcoming attitude of the mother country can this motley group of hustlers and schemers trinidadians and jamaicans men and women make their dreams a reality selvon s meticulously observed narratives of displaced londoners lives created a template for how to write about migrant and postmigrant london for countless writers who have followed in his wake including hanif kureishi and zadie smith caryl phillips black agents provocateurs 250 years of black british writing history and the law 1770 2020 is a comprehensive analysis the invaluable contributions that black writers in britain have made to british society over the last 250 years this book closely examines the lives trials and works of british slaves in the eighteenth century black authors historians and medics in the nineteenth century and black poets playwrights novelists and intellectuals in the twentieth and twenty first centuries it also highlights their contributions to legal changes such as the abolition of slavery act 1833 the criminal appeal act 1907 and the race relations act 1965 as well as the adverse effects that laws such as the criminal evidence act 1984 the asylum and immigration acts 1996 and the coronavirus act 2020 have had upon black lives in britain a study of the literature of the second world war and its aftermath focusing on the welfare state and wartime visions of rebuilding britain this groundbreaking study of prolific trinidadian writer sam selvon includes background essays interviews with selvon and critical assessments of his ten novels and collected short stories an extensive bibliography and notes on the contributors are included in addition to sam selvon the contributors to the work include whitney balliett harold barratt edward baugh frank birbalsingh e k brathwaite edith efron michel fabre anson gonzalez louis james george lamming bruce f macdonald peter nazareth v s naipaul sandra paquet jeremy poynting isabel quigley kenneth ramchand eric roach gordon rohlehr andrew salkey clancy sigal derek walcott edward wilson and francis wyndham the author of such works as a brighter sun 1952 the lonely londoners 1956 and the plains of caroni 1970 west indian novelist samuel selvon is attracting growing amounts of scholarly attention nonetheless criticism of his works has largely been imbalanced with most scholarship focusing primarily on his language this book corrects that imbalance by placing selvon s novels within historical sociological and ideological contexts a new interpretation of selvon s achievement as a novelist the volume looks for the first time at his works in terms of categories of novels peasant middle class and immigrant the book demonstrates that each category is different from the others and that novels within categories are similar thus it provides a coherent vision of selvon s canon it illustrates as well the development of selvon s philosophy of west indians as peasant bourgeois and immigrant in doing so it explores the significance of ethnicity in his works and discusses selvon s imaginative apotheosis of the indo trinidadian peasant and the diminution of the afro trinidadian immigrant the volume also studies selvon s fictional and rhetorical techniques and argues that his works range from bildungsroman to picaresque to epic to satire caribbean novelist sam selvon was part of the new wave of post war west indian writers george lamming v s naipaul and derek walcott among others who would redefine what english literature meant in novels such as a brighter sun and the lonely londoners selvon invented a literary language at once playful and engaging moving to the rhythms of both literary modernism and caribbean folk tales and calypsos atlantic passages is the first book length study to place selvon s fiction at the center of postcolonial theoretical debates it measures selvon s novels against their social and cultural contexts gauging their productive counterpoise with ideas of history and community more fully than any previous study it maps the landscape of selvon s novels and their fictional confrontation with modernity in the immigrant enclaves of london and the newly independent caribbean islands an academic critical history and survey of west indian literature in english
